We're always looking to add new members so we're on the look out for artists and emerging artists!

It is easier than you think and we will help you breeze through it. We'll will give you a mentor for the first month and we will help you to display and market your work.

Here's how it works:

Contact our Membership Chair Sherri by email firstartgalleryolathe@gmail.com. She will respond and ask you to submit 5 pieces of your artwork for our jury process.

Since we're a member owned and operated business you'll need to be involved in working a few shifts at the gallery every month (don't worry, we will train you). We will ask you to get involved in things happening at the gallery and helping the gallery with various business items.
